CALL FOR K-2 SUBMISSIONS!

Parents, if your child (K through 2nd grade) would like to submit a creative work for publication in PS196Q's Spotlight Magazine, please see below for ideas and inspiration to get them started!

The theme for this issue is MYSTERY.

- Write about a spooky, scary night...
- Write about a time you were super surprised...
- Do you know (or can you make up) a joke about a spy or detective?
- I would make a great detective when I grow up because...
- I would make a great spy when I grow up because...
- Talk to a grandparent or older family friend. Ask them if they have any secrets they would like to share. Then, write about that person and what they tell you.
- Create a word problem where readers must solve for a mystery number.
- Write a "how to" for a mysterious science experiment.
- Write about a mysterious person from history. Provide clues so readers can "guess who" your historical figure is.
- Draw a picture of a spy: spying on someone from a hiding place.
- Take a picture of yourself – then draw on the photo, giving yourself a funny disguise.
- Create a work of art about feeling surprised, scared, or suspicious.
- Create a work of art that is mysterious.
- Create a work of art where things are hidden (or partly hidden) within the image.
- Draw a detective (or yourself) looking through a magnifying glass.
- Come up with your own idea for something mysterious! It can be any subject: art, math, science, social studies, reading or writing.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS IS FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1.

There is a limit of ONE submission per child.

Please send your child's work to school with them in an envelope addressed to:

"PA: Spotlight Magazine" or email it to spotlightmagazine196@gmail.com.

Be sure to include your child's name and class number!

PLEASE NOTE: submissions can not be returned.
